

Liz Pruss

Liz moved to On Top of the World from Atlanta, GA., where she called home for 41 years. Before that she lived in Wisconsin. Now she can enjoy golf year-round, playing 4 to 5 times a week. That is great considering she just started playing when she and her husband, Joe, landed in the Avalon 1 neighborhood in 2017. In her former life, Liz was a senior executive coordinator for 31 years with the management consultant firm of Ernst & Young. Now, she can be found on the golf course, at the gym or playing cards.
