

Sandy, and her husband Paul, moved to the Newcastle neighborhood in March of 2021 from Michigan. She was a banker in her former life (avoid playing Monopoly with her). Sandy has been playing golf since 1985 and had one hole-in-one. In her spare time, she enjoys playing Samba, reading, and attending social events with the neighborhood. She also sneaks cuddles from her daughter's pup.